TO THE
Worthy and Independent Freemen
Of the CITY of OXFORD.

GENTLEMEN,

NOTHING but the present State of Mr. Annesley's Health could possibly prevent his making a personal Application to every Freeman for his Support to represent this City, to which he must naturally be attached; and I trust that the Report of Dr. Wall, as well as his Hand Bill of the 12th, will leave no room for its doubt.

I hope it will not be thought too presuming if I take the Liberty, as his Friend and Relation, to solicit the Favor of your Votes and Interest for his Re-election upon the present Dissolution, with the Assurance, that the Honor you have before conferred on him, as well as your Suffrages on the Day of Election, will always be gratefully remembered by him, as well as,

GENTLEMEN,

Your most obedient

Humble Servant,

MARTIN ANNESLEY.

Oxford, 21st of May, 1796.

N. B. The Report circulated that Mr. ANNESLEY means to decline the Canvass in Favour of Mr. BURTON, is entirely without Foundation, and done with intent to injure him on the Day of Election.
